2012 CALENDAR of FESTIVALS & EVENTS

NOTES ON DATES: Some dates are approximate (the date may vary by a day either side of the date stated) and will be determined in most cases by the sighting of the moon and the traditions of the community. Jewish festivals start at sunset on the evening before the date stated. Determination of Sikh festival dates – the Nanakshahi calendar came into effect at Vaisakhi 2003. It means that the majority of Sikh dates will now be constant from year to year by reference to the Gregorian (i.e. secular) calendar. Previously Sikh dates were determined by the (Hindu) Bikrami calendar. The dates of three festivals, Hola Maholia, Bandi Chhor Divas (i.e. Divali) and the birthday of Guru Nanak will continue to be set on the basis of this older calendar. It is possible that some Sikh organisations may continue to observe other dates too, according to the older calendar.
