

Asbestos exposure is more likely for trades people (e.g. our own staff), for tenants undertaking repairs or from contractors undertaking work in homes. Think before you do any repair. Tenants who want to do their own repairs must ask us for permission. We will also be able to tell you the building elements of your home.