

David Vatcher moved to Ambleside with his wife in 1986 where they successfully ran a guest house for many years. David has three grown up children, two of whom have also settled in the Windermere area.

David joined South Lakeland District Council in 1994 and has been a member of the Board of South Lakes Housing since 2005. David believes that Housing is by far the most important service that South Lakeland District Council deliver and is extremely passionate about the provision of affordable homes in the area.