

John has been a tenant for 17 years and lives in Ambleside. His previous work experience was in the food trade, being Purchasing Director for a large firm of wholesale food distributors. Later he worked in a retail news agency before retiring. He takes a keen interest in the financial side of the business particularly rent collection and the cash flow, and the support of older people and sheltered housing.