

John has been involved as an Independent Director of South Lakes Housing since the inception in 2004 and was Board Chair for the first 4 four years. His professional expertise is as a Surveyor in the Construction Industry and is a member of the Chartered Institute of Building having a special interest in the repairs and maintenance of the housing stock. He has been involved as a consultant and directly employed by a Local Authority and a number of Health Authorities and is currently employed by a construction consultancy company working in the nuclear industry. Originally from Wigan he has lived in Ulverston since 1984, has two grown up sons and a step daughter currently at university studying for a degree. He is a keen follower of his home town rugby league club and enjoy the area by fell walking.