

PRESS RELEASE

Big Tidy Up hits Waterside in Kendal

South Lakes Housing staff joined residents and other partners supporting the newly formed Waterside Residents' Association on a rather windy day in April to rid the estate of litter – and they had a right big tidy up!

The Big Tidy Up campaign provided the bags, litter pickers and attractive neon-green vests, and the clean-up gang spent a busy couple of hours bagging litter from the estate.

Chief Executive of South Lakes Housing, Peter Thomas, said, 'It's great to see young people giving up time in their school holidays to tidy up their estates. Well done to everyone!'

Pictured above are the young people who enthusiastically tackled the litter in their school holidays, front L- R, Megan Cook, Bethany McKenzie, and Kain Hogg. Other people working hard on the day were L – R - PC Claire Fallows, PCSO Mandy Coleman, Housing Officer Steve Roe, and Cllr Chris Hogg.

Big Tidy Up is part of the Keep Britain Tidy Campaign see www.encams.org for further information