

Russell Clarke commenced work as Director of Asset Management in October 2011. He has experience of working within both housing associations and local authorities managing internal direct labour organisations and partnering contracts to a value of £21m per year.

Russell was formerly Head of Maintenance and Investment at the City of Lincoln Council managing a stock of around 8,000 properties. He has also been Head of Asset Management at another organisation that has undergone housing transfer and delivering investment commitments during the early years as a Registered Provider