

Sheltered housing tenants have had the opportunity to draw up action plans for their scheme. The plans form part of a sheltered housing agreement which outlines:

- The information tenants can expect to receive about the sheltered housing service and how that should be provided
- How they can monitor the service which they receive
- How they can become involved in planning new services or altering the existing service