

- South Lakes Housing are responsible for the structure and exterior of the property; gas and plumbing systems; heating and hot water equipment; and fixtures and fittings. A full list of these items is shown below.
- If any of these items are damaged by you, your family or guests, or because you have misused them or not looked after them properly, then we may hold you responsible for the repair.