

Yes, you will have been sent a notice when permission was granted. You should sign this notice when the work is complete and return it to the Maintenance Surveyor at South Lakes Housing.
If you have made structural alterations, an officer will visit you to make a final inspection.